God Said "Yes"

For the world, the resurrection of Jesus is an ambiguous historical fact. Ambiguous, because the event rests on the fact of an empty tomb. Now, that the tomb was empty is enough of a verifiable historical fact from both Roman and Jewish historical sources that an unbiased mind will accept that Jesus' tomb was empty on the first day of that week. Ah, but an empty tomb is one thing; a resurrection is something else entirely!

It is one thing to verify from history that Jesus' tomb was empty that morning. The various explanations for that verifiable detail...well, they are legion. The most common, of course, is some variation of body snatching. The disciples or somebody stole Jesus' body during the night.

For this reason Easter, the Resurrection of our Lord, remains a day for faith. Because while the empty tomb may make the resurrection of Jesus credible from an historical point of view, it doesn't prove that what we Christians believe about Jesus' resurrection is true. Only faith—the gift of God to us by His Spirit—will convince a person that the fact of the empty tomb is explained by the miracle of Jesus being raised from death to new life by the divine Father. (And equally important, only by faith can we be convinced that we too shall be raised from death to that same new life of His.)

So on Easter, while the world must grapple with an empty tomb, asking the old question, "What does this mean?" faith rejoices in the answer to that question. The empty tomb means that God said, "Yes!" In the resurrection of Jesus, God said "Yes" to His Son. If the cross were the last word on Jesus, then the world, having been victorious over God, would be lost in death and damnation without any hope. On the cross, Jesus cried the human cry of despair and commended Himself into the hands of the Father. The resurrection confirms that God has said "Yes" to His Son and to His Son's work. "Holy Scripture plainly saith That death is swallowed up by death, Its sting is lost forever. Alleluia!" (LSB458, stanza 4)

God not only said "Yes" to His Son, but in the resurrection He has also said "Yes" to us. Jesus "was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification." (Romans 4:25) What happens to Him, happens to us, because God has accepted us in Christ. This is not something we can ascertain from experience. This is solely the Word from God, believed in the heart and confessed by the tongue of one who is in Christ. (Romans 10:9-10)

The "Yes" from God, to His Son and to us, extends also to the creation. (Romans 8:19-23) It is an important affirmation! For the resurrection does not destroy our embodied existence, but changes our lowly embodiedness into glory. How is it possible for the mortal, perishable body to become immortal and imperishable? (1 Corinthians 15) That is the mystery of Easter, for Jesus and for us and for all creation. But we do know that Jesus kept His body because the tomb was empty. And the curse with which God pronounced His judgment upon creation is transformed by the resurrection into the glory of the promised new creation, the new heavens and earth of the Last Day, revealed in the divine “Yes” of Easter’s glorious Day.

So for the world, an insoluble riddle remains: why is the tomb empty? For faith, this riddle is a sign of the work of God in history. Historical/scientific research can neither prove nor disprove the resurrection. It is faith alone, looking upon the limited facts available to history and science, hearing the Word of promise from the Gospels, faith receives the certainty of the resurrection. Faith alone acknowledges the “Yes” of God as coming from God Himself. And faith, in turn, sings “Amen/ Yes” in each and every “Alleluia!” of Easter Day.

The new organ console is being lifted up into the balcony (left). Once up to the balcony, many hands were need to lift it into place (below). It is a visual reminder of the “many hands” that have been needed all along in this project! From the craftsmen who built the organ and voiced the pipes, to the hands that helped with the carpentry work preparing for the instrument, to the hands that have pledged donations to fund the project, many, many hands have participated. For each and for all, many, many thanks!

Dear Saints of St. Peter’s,

We are drawing closer to the end of Lent, to Palm Sunday, to Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and the joyous Easter celebration. These are the days in which we mark the observance of the central elements of Christian faith, Christ’s death and resurrection. And though Christ crucified and risen is always the focal point of our Christian faith and the message of the Church, nowhere are these themes more clearly the focus of everything we do than during Holy Week. Everything we will read, hear, and do for the rest of the year flows from events of those few days. The call to repentance, the joy of knowing that sins are forgiven, and the hope of the resurrection and everlasting life with Christ in His Kingdom all find their center in these days. It is a time for our faith to be renewed and refreshed.

It is also a wonderful opportunity for those outside the church, to find out what the core of Christianity is all about.

We have connections to people in our community in our online lives. We have connections to people from school and work, people from clubs and organizations within the community. And in a place such as Facebook, we have a chance to provide witness to our faith and encourage people we know to come find out what our church is all about, in a way that is not very confrontational, but is highly conversational.

As you probably know, we have been expanding our Church’s presence on the internet in order to more fully reach out into the community. This will happen most fully with help from many in the congregation. Here are some ways that you can help spread the Word about our church this Easter season:

“Like” St. Peter’s page on Facebook. The more “likes” the site has, the more visible it is on Facebook. Once you “like” St. Peter’s the church’s status updates will be automatically sent to your “News Feed.” This also shows up on friends’ “News Feeds” and gives them the chance to explore the church page.

Did one of Pastor’s sermons really hit home for you? Find the one you’re looking for at <stpetersarlington.org/sermons> and post a link to it as a status-update on your Facebook (or Twitter, MySpace, etc.) profile. Include a note about what it made you think about, questions it raised for you, etc. which are good discussion starters.

Write a status update promoting St. Peter’s Lenten and Easter services:

- “Going to midweek Lenten service at St. Peter’s tomorrow. Wonder what’s for dinner afterward?”
- “They’re playing the new organ at St. Peter’s in Arlington this week, excited to hear how it sounds!”
- “Palm Sunday is this week, the choir is singing a cantata, should be good”
- “Going to Easter services with the family [or use names, either friends or family] this Sunday”

In Christ,
Vicar Sherman

St. Peter's Child Care & Preschool

Accredited by NAEYC

By Connie Hendrickson, Director

"Let us consider how we can spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together, as some are habit of doing, but let us encourage one another." Hebrews 10:24-25

Letting children 'have choices' is an important part of their growth and development. Letting them have 'a voice' is a great way to encourage their communication and pro-social skills. But when it comes to going to church and Sunday school it must be the adult who makes the right choice and uses their parental voice in teaching the importance of weekly church attendance. How else can a child's 'spiritual' growth and development ever begin to take fold?

We have been blessed with the gift of giving the Word of Christ to the children of our day care and preschool, especially to those who are not churched at all. We are fortunate to help plant the seeds for a child's spiritual growth and development that enhance and reinforce what faithful parents are already instilling in their child. This is a team effort in every sense of the word.

Do not stunt your child's spiritual growth by letting them make the wrong choice or by letting them use their inexperienced voice by rolling over in bed and whining they are too sleepy to go to Sunday school. Make regular church and Sunday school (and don't forget Lenten services this blessed time a year) a priority, not a debate. And ask your child who they would like to bring along. You'd be very much surprised just how many children have never seen the inside of our Lord Savior's House.

COUNCIL NOTES – March 8, 2011

St. Peter's Church Council Meeting was called to order by President Bill Steffenhagen at 6:29 pm. Members present were Bill Steffenhagen Keith Podoll, Cynthia Thurston, John Penhorn, Corinne Tuschl, Glenn Puntney, Mary Taylor, Marv Manke, Shannon Rohrbeck, Steve Paskey, Brad Zimmerman, Sandra Sandstrom, Greg Frank, Vicar Sherman, Steve Hustad, Pastor Hendrickson, Mark Schoeckert, & Mark Witt. Verna Mueller, Tom Crum, Mike Post, & Mark Manke were excused.

Pastor Hendrickson gave the opening devotion from John Chapter 12, and talked about the idea that with the Lenten Season beginning, it can always be counted on the end the same way: with the resurrection.

Gina Mascotti with the Red Cross gave a presentation on the potential use of St Peter's as a possible disaster shelter for the Red Cross in times of need. She stated that insurance needs for use of the building will be provided by the Red Cross. She then walked the council through any disastrous events and the process of helping victims. Red Cross would provide personnel to set up and clean up after the disaster. Red Cross is willing to pay any out of pocket operating expenses. After a brief question and answer session Mark Witt moved to further discuss this issue under Old Business, and to approve the Agenda as modified. Steve Paskey seconded, and the motion passed.

The minutes were presented, read, and a spelling error in the name Matthew was noted.

Mark Manke moved to approve the report with the spelling correction. Mark Schoeckert seconded and the motion passed.

Corinne Tuschl gave the Financial Secretary's report. She clarified the collections and expenses. Greg Frank moved to approve the report. Keith Podoll seconded, and the motion carried.

Cynthia Thurston gave the Treasurer's report clarifying the carry-overs, and the checkbook balances. She questioned how to pay the vicarage repair bills. She stated funds in the special purpose account are low. President Bill Steffenhagen wants to set up a committee of Steve Paskey, Mark Witt, Pastor Hendrickson, and Bill Steffenhagen for discussion on how to improve our financial issues and the most effective use of our funds. Glenn Puntney moved to approve the report and accept the committee. Mark Schoeckert seconded, and the motion carried.

The Board of Elders will be reviewing the committees. The Military Care Committee needs a new liaison to handle the mailing of the Military care packages. There were no further committee reports. Vicar reports the website and the Facebook page are available now, and this could be a good way to stay in touch with activities within the church. It is also a great tool for evangelism. The Youth group is meeting and discussing how to connect Jesus Christ Superstar with the Lenten Season. Keith Podoll moved to accept the Elder's report. Brad Zimmerman seconded, and the motion carried.

Keith Podoll gave the Trustee's report. He explained the church insurance coverage. He gave figures comparing two insurance companies. No changes will be further discussed until the fall. All the preliminary electrical work is ready for the arrival of the new organ. Marv Manke moved to accept the report. Steve Hustad seconded, and the motion carried.

The Board of Education report was given. Three students have been added to the CCC; two full time students and one before and after school. Sunday School students listened to the Kat Trio as part of their classes. Mid-week classes are currently helping with the Lenten Suppers. Grades five and six will be finishing their classes in April. The Confirmands speaking services will be on April 10th with Confirmation on May first. The Youth Group Easter Egg Hunt will be April 16. Once again the Youth Group will provide an Easter Breakfast on April 24. Steve Paskey moved to approve the report. Glenn Puntney seconded, and the motion carried.

Pastor's report included themes for the Lenten service and Sunday sermons. He commented on the music being performed during the Lenten season, including handbells, choir and brass performances. He commented on the introduction of Josh Schroeder as a Church Deacon, and that he has obtained a position at a church school in Westfield. He also noted that vicarage funds are too low to attempt to apply for a Vicar for next year. Brad Zimmerman motions to accept the report. Lynnette Taylor seconded, and the motion carried.

There were no membership changes.

Under Old Business, the organ update included the time period for getting the new console finished, into the church and up into the choir loft. The piano will be used during services in March, possibly through the 27th to allow for finalization of getting the new organ ready to play. At this point Cynthia Thurston explained how the funds were put together to pay for the organ. A loan was obtained for the amount not covered by current organ donations and gifts. There was some further discussion of the issue of the Red Cross using the church building for a shelter for victims of a disaster. Mark Schoeckert moved to fulfill an agreement with the Red Cross to provide shelter for victims of a disaster with provisions for payment of utilities by the Red Cross. Cynthia Thurston seconded, and the motion carried.

Under New Business there was a short discussion about setting the date for the Quarterly Meeting. Mark Witt moved to hold it on April 17th. Steve Paskey seconded, and the motion carried.

Due to the Easter schedule where Easter falls on the fourth Sunday, a non-communion Sunday, this April Greg Frank made a motion to hold a Divine Service on April 17th and Communion Service on April 24th. Shannon Rohrbeck seconded, and the motion carried.

Brad Zimmerman moved to adjourn. Glenn Puntney seconded, and the motion carried. This was followed by the Lord's Prayer.

~Mary Taylor, Secretary

Answer: "...fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart." Hebrews 12:2-3, NIV
