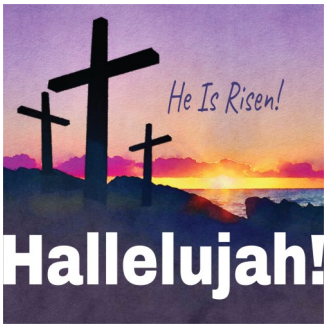
ST. PETER'S NET APRIL 2025

Beloved in the Lord:

I write these words to you on March 25th, the feast of the Annunciation of Our Lord. This feast celebrates the angel Gabriel appearing to Mary to announce to her that the Holy Spirit will implant in her womb the Son of God, Jesus Christ. She will bear the Savior of both Jews and Gentiles, Who will suffer and die for our sins and rise victorious from the grave.



The Feast of the Annunciation is an appropriate occasion to write about the most important event in history: the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. It's good to be prepared in advance because the closer you and I get to Easter, the harder the devil is going to work to take your attention away from what Jesus does for you on these holy days. The devil wants to separate you from hearing God's Word about your salvation. The devil wants you to shrug your shoulders at all the opportunities you have to hear Jesus bleed and die for your sins, and come forth from the grave triumphant over death and hell for you. The devil wants you to believe that everything Jesus does is only for those who really deserve it...and he wants you to think you don't deserve it.

If there is no resurrection, there is no hope for eternal life. Your salvation is put into your hands, and there is nothing you can do to save yourself. Your blood does not cleanse you from all sin. It is not possible for you to rise from the dead in order to conquer death. Only Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of our heavenly Father, is the ultimate scapegoat for sin. Only Jesus Christ is the firstborn from the death, trampling down death for our sake and bringing us eternal life.

Our social calendars start to stack up this time of the year with baseball, softball, soccer, track and field, prom activities, graduation activities, and concerts, not to mention family gatherings. Before you know it, Easter has come and gone, and you had no time to stop and celebrate it. Take time to stop the constant running this year and savor Holy Week and Easter. Clear your calendar as best you can so that you are able to hear the life changing

Good News of forgiveness, life, and salvation wrought for you by Jesus Christ. Maybe it's only one service, but that's better than none. Come and hear that Jesus lives! The victory is won! Because He lives, you also shall live!

If you are like this cantor, then you are certainly looking forward to singing Easter hymns again and celebrating The Day of Resurrection (LSB 478)
by John of Damascus, Trans. by John Mason Neale

The day of resurrection! / Earth, tell it out abroad;
The passover of gladness, / The passover of God.
From death to life eternal, / From sins dominion free,
Our Christ hath brought us over, / With hymns of victory.

"The Day of Resurrection" explodes with Easter triumph! The original language is Greek. This is one of the few hymns that we sing with roots so deep in Christianity.

St. John Damascene, known also as John of Damascus, lived at the end of the seventh century and well into the eighth. Birth-dates range from 655 to a death date of 780. LSB has listed him as living from c. 696 – c. 754. His excellent literary and philosophical education in Damascus no doubt contributed to his renown as the author of liturgical hymns in Constantinople, the seat of eastern Christianity. Tradition suggests that he was a monk at the St. Sabbas Monastery. This is a historically significant site overlooking the Kidron Valley, halfway between the Dead Sea and the Old City of Jerusalem. More recent scholarship by Greek scholar Vass Conticello places John of Damascus at Jerusalem Cathedral where he was the theological advisor of Patriarch John V of Jerusalem. Though most likely buried at St. Sabbas, his relics were later moved to Constantinople.

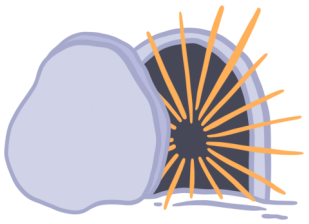
There is no doubt, however, that John of Damascus was one of the most important hymnographers of the Byzantine (Eastern) Church. His name appears often in manuscripts, although not all the hymns attributed to him may have been his. It was a common practice during this time– and indeed for hundreds of years after this–to ascribe the name of a famous or acclaimed author (or even composer) to a work.

St. John of Damascus composed in one of three major forms of Christian poetry, the kanon. The kanon replaced earlier forms of hymnody that were linked to nine biblical canticles and expanded the complexity, variety of themes, and forms of hymns used in the liturgy to include major Christian festivals. St. John Damascene, the most accomplished composer of this form, wrote "Anastaseôs hêmera" as the kanon for Easter Day, translated later by John Mason Neale (1818-1866) as "The Day of Resurrection." Neale was the great hymnologist of England's Oxford Movement in the mid-nineteenth century. His translation first appeared in Hymns of the Eastern Church (1862) in the section, "The Second Epoch" of Greek Hymnody dating from 726-820.

This hymn and "Come,Ye Faithful, Raise the Strain" (LSB 487) were both written by the author as hymns from the "Golden Canon," a series of Easter poems linking the mighty acts of God. The poetry of the Golden Canon, sometimes called the "Queen of Canons," is said to be the finest example of Greek sacred poetry.

John Mason Neale includes a description of a nineteenth-century observer of this ancient Easter liturgy, the most important festival of Christians, in which this hymn would have been sung:
"As midnight approached, the archbishop, with his priests, accompanied by the King and Queen, left the Church and stationed themselves on the platform, which was raised considerably from the ground, so that they were distinctly seen by the people. Every one now remained in breathless expectation, holding unlighted tapers in readiness when the glad moment should arrive . . .. Suddenly, a single report of a cannon announced that twelve o'clock had struck and that Easter Day had begun; then the old Archbishop, elevating the cross, exclaimed in a loud, exulting tone, 'Christos anesti!' 'Christ is risen!' and instantly every single individual of all that host took up the cry. ... At that same moment, the oppressive darkness was succeeded by a blaze of light from thousands of tapers which . . . seemed to send streams of fire in all directions . . .
Bands of music strike up their gayest strains. . . . and above the mingling of many sounds, . . . the aged priests were distinctly heard chanting forth the glorious old hymn of victory, 'The day of resurrection/Earth, tell it out abroad.'"
(Hymns of the Eastern Church, 1862, Sections 93-95; http://www.ccel.org/ccel/neale/easternhymns.edcanon.html)

Stanza one of "The Day of Resurrection" reminds us that Easter is the second Passover, the first Passover described in Exodus 12. Paul places the first Passover in the context of the suffering of Christ in I Corinthians 5:7, KJV: "Christ our passover is sacrificed for us." The movement "from death to life eternal" is the paradigm for those being baptized during the Easter Vigil who are buried and rise with Christ in the baptismal waters.



Stanza two introduces the important theme of "resurrection light," which is recalled by the description of the ancient Easter rite of the "blaze of light from thousands of tapers"– a symbol of life conquering death, goodness overcoming evil.

The cosmic antiphonal chorus begins stanza three. Throughout Christian hymnody, one may find the cosmic song beginning in heaven followed by earth's response. Indeed, the Resurrection is a singular event of universal significance. The stanza continues with an allusion to the opening statement of belief in the Nicene Creed: "We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen." In the spirit of this creedal affirmation, John's great hymn concludes in eternal praise:

Let all things, seen and unseen, / Their notes of gladness blend;
For Christ the Lord has risen, / Our joy that has no end.

In His service,
Cantor Geremy Zieroth

FROM THE Vicar

As we draw further into Lent, the time draws near for the church to begin thinking of Holy Week. What is Holy Week? Holy Week is the final week leading up to Easter, recounting the final events leading to Christ's suffering, death, burial, and resurrection. It is during Holy Week that the church year reaches its climactic height, focusing on Christ and His saving work for sinners, culminating in the cross and resurrection where Christ does away with death and wins for all who believe in His name eternal life and salvation.

Holy Week begins with Palm Sunday (or Passion Sunday) beginning with the reading of the Triumphal entry in John and continuing with the reading of one of the crucifixion accounts in the gospels. It is something of a second Good Friday, showing especially how Christ's true triumph is not simply the triumph of another kingdom of this world but rather the triumph of God's kingdom over death, sin, and the power of the devil. Christ's triumphal entry shows how Christ has come to bring an end to life in this old world that is held captive by sin, death, and the accusation of the law and work a new creation and a new kingdom of righteousness, life, and freedom.

Holy Week then continues with Maundy Thursday and Good Friday. These days recall the institution of the Lord's Supper and Christ's suffering and death on the cross. It is fitting to pair these two together because it is in the Lord's Supper that Christ promises the forgiveness of sins, the forgiveness that He works for all who believe in His name at the cross. The true body of Christ that was given into death and the true blood that was poured out for the life of the world is then given by Christ Himself to us in the Supper, so that we would share with Him in new life. This all culminates in the Easter vigil and Easter Sunday, where the church boldly proclaims Christ's triumph over death so that now all can hear these great and comforting words, "death is swallowed up in victory," (1 Cor. 15:54). This is the true heart and center of Holy Week. Christ's suffering, death, resurrection, and all His saving work are done to bring forgiveness and new life to all who believe in His name.

Yours in Christ,
Vicar Bliss

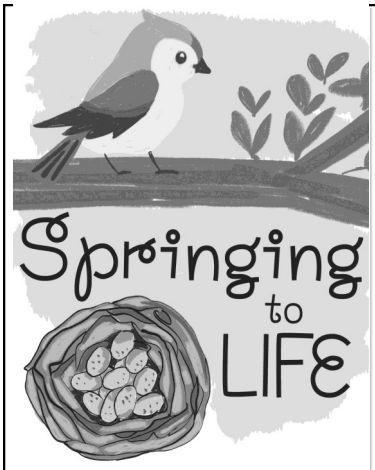
Saturday morning Men's Bible Study is held in the classroom across from the office at 8:00am.

Ladies Bible Study is held on Tuesday's at 1:00 p.m. here at St. Peter's.

Join in this time of fellowship and discussion of God's Word.



Springing to LIFE

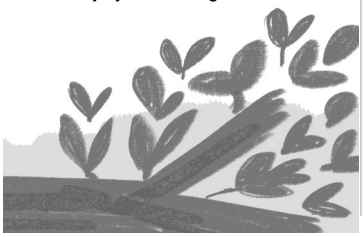
New life defines the season of spring. Make this Easter craft that symbolizes rebirth.

What you need:

- Brown paper lunch bag
- Scissors
- Pencil
- Glue stick
- Jellybeans

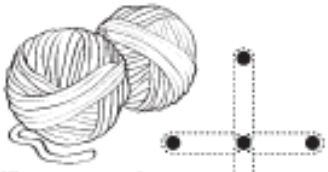
What you do:

1. From the bag's bottom, cut two 2-inch circles. Set aside.
2. From the sides, cut two 10-inch circles.
3. Draw a thin spiral on each large circle and cut along the lines. Crinkle spirals gently.
4. Starting at the center, wrap one spiral into a nest. Glue every few inches to hold it.
5. Glue one small circle to the bottom of the nest.
6. Repeat with the other spiral. Fill nests with jellybeans and give to a friend!



CROSS CRAFT

Make this special cross as a reminder of Jesus' death and resurrection.



What you need:

- Adult help
- Piece of wood
- 5 nails
- Hammer
- 2 balls of yarn (blue and yellow)

What you do:

1. Hammer the nails into the wood to form a cross shape (see example).
2. Tie the blue yarn to the bottom nail. Wrap it up and around the top nail and back down to the bottom nail. Then wrap it around the middle nail and around the side nails. Repeat until the yarn is wrapped about halfway up the exposed nails.
3. Repeat step two with the yellow yarn. Wrap it around the nails until only the heads are visible.

The table in the narthex has a good selection of cards available. Stop by and check it out! There is a wide range of cards to fit every occasion including confirmation and graduation. All proceeds go to the Christian Women's Council to help support all their good works. There are also a small number of craft items available for sale. You may leave your cash or check in the basket on the table.

St. Peter's Child Care & Preschool
Cathy Wendt, Director

Spring is here! Now we eagerly look forward to warm days to be outside looking for signs of the season. It is always fun to help the children notice the changes occurring in God's world as spring really blooms around us.

We are excited to share the True Story of Easter with the kids as they learn that Jesus died for each of us, so that we can have everlasting life with him in heaven! Remember to ask your child about what they are learning at school. St. Peter's Lutheran Church invites and welcomes all families to join them to celebrate on Easter Sunday and every Sunday and kids are always welcome to Sunday school. How fun for them to see Pastor and Vicar at 'work' and to visit with friends from school.

He has Risen, Risen indeed

Ms Carol with all her little friends!

COUNCIL MINUTES March 11, 2025

The March 11, 2025 meeting of the St. Peter's Lutheran Church council meeting was called to order by President Cameron Gramse at 6:38pm. Pastor Juhl opened the meeting with prayer.

The Agenda was presented. Lynnette Taylor asked that April Voters' meeting date be added to New Business. Paul Yamriska made a motion to accept as amended. Bill Manthey second, motion carried.

Secretary's minutes were read. Paul Yamriska moved to approve the minutes, Joey Pascavis second, carried.

Financial Secretary's report was given by Joey Pascavis. Giving to the General Fund was down in February but when added to the extra funds that were given in January, we are still at 97% of need for projected expenses. Mission giving is at 106% of our pledge for the year. Calvin Moll moved approval of the report, Meg Hanson second, carried.

Treasurer's report was given by Meg Hanson. The checkbook balance as of today is $12,465.11. There have been no out of the ordinary expenses. Mike Pertzborn moved to approve the Treasurer report, Calvin Moll second, motion carried.

Board of Elder's report given by Bill Manthey. Services are proceeding as normal. The Calvary Luncheon will be served by St. Peter's congregation March 16th, sign up sheets for helpers and dessert makers is posted in the narthex. No reports from Military Care, Oakwood Communities, or Christian Women's Council. Three scholarship applications were handed out to graduating seniors. Directory picture taking is set to begin later this month. Cantor was attending Katze's choir concert so his report was read by Lynnette Taylor: Adult Choir: is going strong but needs more members, especially men. Practices during Lent start about 8pm. We have 4 services left in our season. Handbells has a full choir, but having a hard time practicing due to weather and sicknesses this year. Practices during Lent begin after Lenten Vespers. We have 5 services left plus a wedding at the end of May. Bells and Choir host the April 2 midweek dinner. Upper Grades choir: Good group, full of strong singers. The last month or so has been dominated by absences but they still sing monthly at an 8am service. Lower Grades choir is a small and mighty group that has a bunch of strong singers in there. They also sing monthly at an 8am service. Cantor was organist at his grandfather's funeral at Trinity, Waconia, MN on Feb 21. He also served as organist at his father-in-law's funeral at St. Peter's Catholic, Antioch, IL on Mar 4th. Trevor Magness covered Mon, Mar 3 service so he could be at the visitation in Antioch. Instrumentalists are getting put together for Easter. Rehearsal for them will be April 19. Cantor wrote the Psalm 6 antiphon for Ash Wednesday. Bells will be premiering an arrangement he has put together for this season's offertory (LSB 777) when they next play. He has also arranged a bell accentuation for Psalm 22 to be used on Maundy Thursday. Posters for this year's organ series (made by the Rehlingers) look fantastic. Next concert is Sunday, April 27 at 3pm with Ken Stancer, son of member Jan.

Board of Trustee's Report was presented by Calvin Moll. The results for the lead in the water test have been returned and our results were extremely low so there are no issues with our tap water. Those reports were given to the CCC teachers to be shared with concerned parents. The boilers were inspected and that report came back as "safe for continued use". The re-construction in the bell tower has been completed and walls and ceilings are freshly painted. JW Lawn Service has sent out contracts for 2025 summer fertilization and weed control. We will again opt to pay for all four treatments up front to control costs. A letter from Village of Arlington has been received letting us know that the gas main on Ellickson street will be replaced this month causing some temporary gas outages.

Board of Christian Education report was given by Charlotte Reddeman. Cathy Wendt was present for an open book question and answer period before the meeting started. Child care center has 32 current Students: 5-school age; 6-4K; 13-preschool; 9-Twos with 5 on the waitlist for 2025, 6 for 2026 and 2 for 2027. The Board of Education conducted Cathy's review as well as an exit interview with Carol Schulz upon her retirement. The CCC held a reception for Carol on her last day with the children and on March 9th, another reception was held in conjunction with the early church service for her. Two interns from the School District of DeForest have started as aides. The CCC has also established a CD to be able to give scholarships to their interns in the event that they go to college. Bible classes are steady with the Ladies studying James, the Men are in Daniel, and Sunday is studying Matthew with Vicar Bliss. Midweek classes are in the final stages for the year. Sunday School held their all group activity and watched a movie together in the upstairs classroom.

Pastor's Report was given by Rev. David Juhl. Attendance during February 2025 averaged 116 per weekend. He is seeing 8 homebound members. Living Christ, Madison (20), and Good Shepherd by the Lake, Stoughton (20) are vacant. St. Paul's will be installing Pastor Erdmann in April. Pastor Erdmann will still be caring for Immanuel as well as taking over at St. Paul's. The Circuit Forum was February 13th at St. John's, Portage. Your pastor was elected circuit visitor for Circuit 19 and Pastor Allen Strawn of Calvary, Madison was elected circuit visitor for Circuit 20. Looking ahead: God willing, we will have five confirmands ready to be confirmed on Sunday, May 4th. The confirmands will be examined on Wednesday, April 30th at 6:30 PM. Pastor has contacted fifth grade parents about their child's willingness to receive First Communion on Maundy Thursday, April 17th. Vicarage nights are April 28th at Ft. Wayne and April 30th at St. Louis. Call nights are April 29th at Ft. Wayne and April 30th at St. Louis. Chase Greenhagen and Nick Sinatra will receive their placements on April 29th. Pastor and his son Matthew plan to attend both vicarage night and call night in Ft. Wayne to meet our potential new vicar, as well as support Chase and Nick on call night. Vicar Bliss will preside over a Service of the Word on Monday, April 28th.

Vicar reported that everything is business as usual and going well.

There were no membership changes.

There was no old business.

New business: The April Voters' Meeting date only has one availability – April 27th. Calvin Moll moved to have our April Voters' Meeting on April 27th between services at 9:30 a.m. Meg Hanson seconded, motion carried.

Calvin Moll moved to adjourn, Bill Manthey second, motion carried at 7:17 pm.

The meeting was closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Lynnette Taylor, Council Secretary
