ST. PETER'S NET AUGUST 2025

Beloved in the Lord:

A wise pastor shared with me three things he tells people who join his congregation. First, believe what we believe. Stay grounded in the Scriptures. Hold dear what you learned in Luther's Small Catechism. Do not neglect reading and studying the Bible, especially together with others in our congregation.

Second, join us for worship. We got used to watching things on a screen earlier this decade and it's hard to break habits like that. Watching something on a screen, especially the Divine Service of Word and Sacrament, has its advantages when you are sick or when you are traveling. When you are well and here, however, you are always welcome to join us in-person to rest in the grace and peace of Jesus in sermon, song, and Sacrament. This is not a sometime thing, this is an all-the-time thing. Christians do not forsake meeting together (see Hebrews 10:25).

Third, find something in our congregation that you love and get involved. I heard someone recently say that he misses the time when families gathered together at common events, like the Arlington Firemen's Festival or the Columbia County Fair or even the Lodi Ag Fair. The man then added, "We are too busy being busy nowadays."

His words apply not only to gathering together as families for fun events, but also for finding a place to use your God given talents at St. Peter's Lutheran Church. You know best what you do best. I am not the handiest of people. My gifts are elsewhere, chiefly preaching and teaching. That is why I'm not bashful to lean on our Board of Trustees when I know I can't fix something, but one of them can.

No matter what your gifts are, the Lord has need of them in His service in our congregation. Perhaps you remember recent conflicts in our congregation. No one likes to serve in a contentious circumstance. The days of contentiousness are behind us, thanks be to God. New members who have joined our congregation because there is peace and joy in the Lord here. Perhaps they will get involved at some point. They will need to see how to get involved and where best to use the gifts our heavenly Father has given them. You could be the one to guide them in how they best use their God-given gifts.

Why wait to be asked when you can volunteer your time? I'm always looking for new helpers, both male and female, on the Altar Guild, helping set up and clean up before and after the Divine Service. There are boards and committees that could use your talent, too. Remember that we work together to build up the body of Christ in this place so that, in all things, the name of the Lord is glorified.

Believe what we believe. Join us for Divine Service. Find something you love in our congregation and get involved. Three things that help St. Peter's Lutheran Church thrive as Christians who love and serve the Lord Jesus in Arlington and beyond. Whatever you do, wherever you serve, serve the Lord with gladness. Come into His presence with singing...even if your singing is making a joyful noise to the Lord.

Music Ministry

Welcome to August! Has this been the summer of your dreams? Have you done everything you set out to do? Or, do you have a few things yet to get in this month? There are still festivals and fairs and weekends left to fill our plates and our time, including the Arlington Fireman's Festival and the State Fair. Rest, relaxation, and fun are certainly some of the gifts of God for us!

Let's take a look at the hymn of the day for August 17/18. It is entitled "One Thing's Needful" which is LSB 536.

The hymn "One Thing's Needful," was written by Johann Heinrich Schroder and translated into English by Frances E. Cox. Adam Krieger's tune for it is unique in that this is the only hymn in LSB to change meters in the middle of the hymn.

Can you guess what the ONE THING NEEDFUL is? Let's look.

One: One thing's needful; Lord this treasure
Teach me highly to regard.
All else, though it first give pleasure,
Is a yoke that presses hard!
Beneath it the heart is still fretting and striving,
No true, lasting happiness ever deriving.
This one thing is needful; all others are vain—
I count all but loss that I Christ may obtain!

The key Scripture in this stanza is Philippians 3:7–8, where Paul writes, "But whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For His sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ."

No matter what pleasure our life may bring, whether it be riches, fame, security, or more, the worth of Christ far surpasses it. At the same time, if our life is full of fretting and striving, without any appearance of blessing, the promise of Christ is still for us.

The treasure Christ gives us puts away both our worries and riches and replaces them with blessings and forgiveness. He provides the one thing needful in the words of Holy Scripture, in Absolution from our pastors, and by means of the blessed Sacraments.

Two: How were Mary's thoughts devoted
Her eternal joy to find
As intent each word she noted,
At her Savior's feet reclined!
How kindled her heart, how devout was its feeling,
While hearing the lessons that Christ was revealing!
All earthly concerns she forgot for her Lord
And found her contentment in hearing His Word.

Stanza two comes straight from Luke 10:38–42. Here, Mary and Martha welcome Jesus into their home. Mary its at Jesus' feet to listen to his teaching. Martha wants to do the same, but also wants to be a good hostess for the Lord, and likely the crowd that followed him. Martha's desire to serve her Lord is not misplaced. Service is certainly a godly endeavor; we are called to serve our neighbors. Nevertheless, we should be careful to never let earthly concerns distract us from receiving the gifts through which Christ freely serves us.

Once again, these gifts are the one thing needful. Mary received the gifts of God's words and found joy and contentment. Every time we hear Scripture we, too, find joy and peace in the lessons and grace that Christ reveals to us.

Three: Wisdom's highest, noblest treasure,
Jesus, is revealed in You.
Let me find in You my pleasure,
And my wayward will subdue,
Humility there and simplicity reigning,
In paths of true wisdom my steps ever training.
If I learn from Jesus this knowledge divine,
The blessing of heavenly wisdom is mine.

What Jesus opens to us in the Scriptures is a heavenly, divine wisdom. It isn't the wisdom of the world; it is a wisdom wherein God the Father humbles Himself in the form of His Son, who comes to serve sinners on earth.

Paul writes in a letter to the Corinthians how this wisdom is a stumbling block to the world. The wisdom of the cross is not the wisdom of kings and earthly power. It contains the humility of Christ and the simplicity of faith. This is what Jesus teaches us, and it is the highest and noblest treasure.

Four: Nothing have I, Christ, to offer,
You alone, my highest good.
Nothing have I, Lord, to proffer
But Your crimson-colored blood.
Your death on the cross has death wholly defeated
And thereby my righteousness fully completed;
Salvation's white raiments I there did obtain,
And in them in glory with You I shall reign.

Stanza four invokes Hebrews 9:14: "How much more will the blood of Christ… purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God."

While Martha's commitment to hospitality to Jesus was generous, what Jesus had to offer Mary (and us!) was much more valuable. Our good works and service to our neighbor are certainly for their good. But ultimately, we have no good works or service to offer Christ.

FROM THE Vicar

Greetings in Christ,

It is my great joy to be your new vicar. My wife Katie and I are very happy to be in Arlington and are grateful for all of the opportunities to serve the congregation at St. Peter's. Everyone has already been so welcoming and generous that this feels like home already. Where I'm from originally is Eastern Iowa, a small town called Wellman, which is not that far from Iowa City. It's a unique place and it used to be known as Thanksgiving Town and was famous all over the world for it's Maplecrest turkeys, but today it's largely forgotten. Wellman is also within 30 miles of both the largest Amish settlement west of the Mississippi and the canon future birthplace of Captain James T. Kirk of Star Trek.

I have both a wonderful mother and father, Mary and Norvin Coblentz, and I am the second oldest of five. I have three brothers and one sister. I was born and raised in the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod church and am eternally thankful for it. Katie also has two amazing parents and one younger sister. She was raised Roman Catholic, but had joined the LCMS by the time we met. Katie is from Lowell, Massachusetts, which is a city north of Boston. We met in Fort Wayne at the Seminary and were married this last October 12th. Before Seminary I worked at Hy-Vee for 11 years and have done everything there from bagging to bottles to running whole departments and to this day I still have a soft spot for grocery stores.

In terms of hobbies and interests, I am a big fan of steam locomotives. I also enjoy old technology whether it be computers or machinery, the kinds of things that have nearly forgotten stories. As for Katie she loves airplanes, so I've already taken her to the Jet Room and, of course, she loved it. Katie loves hockey and being an auntie -- she inherited six nieces, one nephew, and two Goddaughters when she married me. We have two more nieces or nephews on the way and another Godson whom I inherited when I married Katie. We are blessed with so many children to love and with such a big and loving family.

In terms of education, I have a Bachelors degree in accounting. I also have studied engineering, but theology is my real passion. In particular I like to learn about the history of theology because it is just story after story of how God has protected His Church from all manner of lies, which is a great encouragement as it reminds me that our generation is not alone in dealing with lies, and our hope is always in Christ.

That is what I will, by the grace of God, be sharing with all of you: our hope is always in Christ. I look forward to growing and improving in sharing that truth with all of you. Thank you all so much for inviting Katie and me into your lives. May the Lord bless us all as we serve together. Amen.

God's blessings to you all,
Vicar Coblentz

A Season of Growth and Wonder: August in Our Church Child Care Ministry

As summer begins to wind down, we look ahead with joy and anticipation to the new school year. August is a season of fresh starts—a time when young hearts and minds return to routines, friendships, and, most importantly, to growing in faith. It is a true blessing to witness our children learning more about the world around them and deepening their love for God day by day.

Our Theme This Month: "Out of This World"

Throughout August, the children will be exploring the awe-inspiring wonders of God's creation—from the stars in the sky to the people in our community who serve and protect us. This fun and faith-filled theme reminds us that God's works are truly beyond our imagination, yet always close to our hearts.

We are especially excited to welcome some real-life community heroes to visit our center this month. Guests from the local police department, fire station, and a tow truck service will be stopping by to meet the children and share about the important work they do. These visits are a beautiful way for the children to see how God uses ordinary people to do extraordinary things. Every day will continue to be filled with joyful, hands-on learning—nature walks to explore God's creation, crafts that express creativity and care, and music that lifts our spirits and praises the Lord.

Please keep our students, staff, and visiting community helpers in your prayers as we embark on an "out of this world" journey this month—celebrating faith, learning, and the endless wonder of God's love.

Scripture tells us our good works are like filthy rags compared to Christ's saving work on the cross. Because of that, our filthy rags are replaced with salvation's white raiments, and we are clothed with Christ.

Five: Therefore You alone, my Savior,
Shall be all in all to me;
Search my heart and my behavior,
Root out all hypocrisy.
Through all my life's pilgrimage, guard and uphold me,
In loving forgiveness, O Jesus, enfold me.
This one thing is needful; all others are vain—
I count all but loss that I Christ may obtain!

Stanza five encapsulates the narrative of the entire hymn from the first four stanzas. Christ serves us Himself, and we are forgiven. This forgiveness is transformational; it guards and upholds our life, and it conforms our heart and behavior to Christ. The final stanza ends as the first one did: "This one thing is needful." It serves as a closing reminder that throughout our entire life, from beginning to end, our all in all—Christ—will forever provide us the highest good: Himself.

COUNCIL MINUTES July 8, 2025

The July 8, 2025 meeting of the St. Peter's Lutheran Church council meeting was called to order by President Cameron Gramse at 6:37pm. This meeting was held in the conference room. Pastor Juhl gave the opening devotion from Romans, chapter 8. St Paul is preparing us for the future glory of eternity. We wait for our perfect body and we wait with certainty that we will achieve our perfect body because Jesus covered all of our sins for us.

The Agenda was presented. Mike Pertzborn made a motion to accept. Bill Manthey second, motion carried.

Secretary's minutes were read, Calvin Moll moved to approve the minutes, Meg Hanson second, motion carried.

Financial Secretary's report was given by Joey Pascavis. June was a solid month with giving at 79% of projected need which puts us at 88% of need for the year up one percent from the same time period last year. Special Purpose giving was largely concentrated toward the Vicar's gift this month. Mission giving is still very strong and we are will above our pledged amount. Bill Manthey moved approval of the report, Mike Pertzborn second, motion carried.

Treasurer's report was given by Meg Hanson. No out of the ordinary expenses. She did note one odd bill that was received. It appears that Grinnell Mutual did not project a high enough payroll amount for their last year covering us and is now requiring a $521 payment for a balance due. The part that frustrates the financial team is that they waited until April to send out the payroll audit, then took until June to do their calculations. Once they come to the conclusion that we underpaid for our worker's comp insurance during the 2024-25 year, they sent a letter at the end of June stating that we owed them $521 and were required to pay by July 11th or they would send us to collections. The checkbook balance as of today is $6,139.53 in the general fund before any July deposits have been made. Calvin Moll moved to approve the Treasurer report, Phil Kruger second, motion carried.

Board of Elder's report was given by Bill Manthey. We just had a holiday weekend in the middle of summer with over 110 people in attendance. Very solid for our congregation. Christian Women's Council is hosting two receptions in the month of July, one a farewell to Vicar Bliss and then a second one to welcome Vicar Josiah Coblentz and his wife, Katie. Military Care is still working on a presentation board for the narthex. Update from Katie Rehlinger on the directory: It is put together and edited. Quotes for printing have been reviewed and we chose to go with Bob's Copy Shop as they gave us the best price for an unlimited amount of copies, not requiring a minimum count. We would suggest putting an announcement in the bulletin if members would like to contribute toward the cost of the printing once we get closer to having the directories to hand out. Cantor's report: Not much going on except for putting music away to prepare for the coming season which starts for handbells and choir on Sept. 10th. VBS will be here the end of July and music is being prepared for that event. We have found an organ tuner service who we have contracted with for twice a year tuning services.

Board of Trustee's Report was presented by Calvin Moll. There are two bids secured for the masonry work and they are waiting on three others to be finalized. The 2nd quarter water bill from the village for the vicarage was received and reported that 82,000 gallons of usage had occurred. Seems very high for a single person. That is being looked into. (A new bill has since been received with 3,000 gal usage and that is much more reasonable). The windows will be worked on very soon.

The Board of Christian Education report was given by Charlotte Reddeman. The Child Care Center is gong smooth and the summer enrollment is full and have been split into three groups. Sunday School is quiet as are Midweek classes. Bible studies are moving along same as usual. VBS planning is well underway and preparations are being made for this summer's program: Epic Australian Adventure. The youth group activity planned for the fifth Sunday in August is quilt tying for Lutheran World Relief.

Pastor's report: Attendance is steady averaging 121 per weekend. He had added two households to the homebound list: Mary Ann Frank at Columbia Health Care Center in Wyocena and Dave & Shirley Qualle at At Home Again Assisted Living in Rio, brining the total home bound families to nine. Living Christ, Madison and Good Shepherd by the Lake, Stoughton are vacant congregations in our portion of the district. Looking ahead, Josiah Coblentz will be inducted as our congregation's tenth Vicar on July 13-14. His first sermon will be on Labor Day weekend, August 31-September 1. Pastor is on a "staycation" through Friday July 11th. He will be leaving after Divine Service on Sunday, August 3rd to attend the PALS Facilitators annual meeting in St. Louis, MO on August 5-6, followed by some vacation days from August 7-10. Pastor Allen Strawn from Calvary, Madison will be here to preach and preside on Monday, August 4th and Sunday, August 10th. Pastor will return the afternoon of Sunday, August 10th and be here for Monday night Divine Service on August 11th. (Pastor Strawn is available to preach on Sundays during the summer because Calvary moves their Divine Service from Sunday morning to Wednesday night during the summer months.) Confirmation instruction resumes Wednesday, September 3rd with orientation at 6:30 PM. The first day of instruction is Wednesday, September 10th at 4:00 PM. We will have 16 students: one 8th grader, four 7th graders, seven 6th graders, and four 5th graders.

There were no membership changes.

There was no old business.

New business: July Voters' meeting reports are due by Thursday, July 17th for inclusion in packets for the meeting.

Calvin Moll moved to adjourn, Meg Hanson second, motion carried at 7:24 pm. The meeting was closed with the common doxology.

Respectfully submitted,
Lynnette Taylor, Council Secretary

Reminder: as summer weekends are filled with last minute activities and travels, we have a Divine Service Monday evening at 6:30pm.
