First Communion and Confirmation

Martin Luther said about the Sacrament of the Altar, "This sacrament is the Gospel." In the Sacrament of the Altar we encounter the incarnation, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ for our salvation. The Divine Service every Sunday reaches its culmination in the celebration of the Sacrament of the Altar. The entire second half of the service has been constructed in a way that centers on Christ present for us in his body and blood.

It is not surprising therefore that children take notice of the Sacrament and want to receive the body and blood of Christ. Or at least it shouldn't be. I have learned that when you teach and preach about the Sacrament, children want to receive it. It is not as if they are any less able to understand the gift. It is after all a mystery that we all receive in faith. Based on what our Lord has said about children and faith, they may even find it easier to believe than adults.

One of the reasons we are slow to think about children receiving the Sacrament is that in our experience of the Lutheran Church, confirmation after eighth grade has marked the time for first communion. We have been trained to think that elementary school children are not suitable recipients of the Sacrament. But not on the basis of Scripture.

As a pastor I began to sense the awkward situation this creates. We teach about and emphasize the Sacrament. Children learn about the Sacrament and want to receive the body and blood of Christ. Yet then we turn around and tell children that although they know what the Sacrament is and want to receive it, they won't be permitted to do so until they are 13-14 years old.

My question is, why wait so long?

It is thought by many that Confirmation is a safe-guard against eating and drinking unfaithfully or to one's judgment, as warned about in 1 Corinthians 11. That while we cannot force a person to believe, we can do our best to give them the tools so that should they choose to listen they will participate to their benefit and not to their judgment. This is a good thought.

What's troubling, though, is that Confirmation is given this role. In fact, Confirmation is all law. It demands a great deal of the confirmed. Confirmation is about membership, vows, and commitment not grace, mercy, and the Gospel.

Do we honestly believe that in order to receive what our Lord wants to give us we must first jump through hoops made by man, found nowhere in the Bible? Or is this what our Lord condemns saying, "In vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men." (Mark 7:7)

But I'm not here arguing for or against Confirmation. I actually believe it has its place. But that place is not as a watchdog for who can and cannot receive that which the Lord desires to give His people, no matter their age. The reason people should receive that which the Lord desires to give them is because the Lord desires to give it to them and they want to receive it.

Who receives the Sacrament worthily? The person that has faith in these words: "Given and shed for you for the forgiveness of sins." In other words, it is the words of Jesus that create faith and the hunger for what He gives, His body and blood. Just as if I were to say to my child, "Here, this is our dinner, it will satisfy your hunger.” He is hungry and so he wants the food.

Let the words of Jesus create the hunger in our children, and let the faith His words create be the reason we joyfully eat and drink with them, not despising the Church of God but rather proclaiming with them the death and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. If they are young, so be it, rejoice all the more that He has chosen to reveal such things to little children. For as Luther says, “Since the children are baptized and received into the Christian Church, they should also enjoy the communion of the Sacrament, in order that they may serve us and be useful to us. they must all certainly help us to believe, love, pray, and fight against the devil” (Large Catechism, V, 87). The Lord Jesus gives His body and His blood to His disciples, to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins. Elsewhere He tells us quite clearly how such disciples are made: by the way and the means of Holy Baptism and the teaching (catechesis) of His Word. To be a disciple of Jesus — and thus to be a Christian and a communicant — is to be a lifelong follower of this Lord, a lifelong student of this Teacher, a lifelong apprentice of this true Master. One does not graduate from discipleship, but is and remains a disciple in the hearing and learning and following of the Word of Christ.

Please note that we are not changing the format of anything at this time. Nor will our midweek classes be changing from its current 5th-8th grade format. What will be discussed over the coming months, and has been discussed last September through November in Sunday Bible Study and periodically with the elders for many months, is making use of First Communion Prior to Confirmation. This will be highlighted in July’s newsletter as well. There is a long, detailed history of confirmation available in the narthex as well as the kitchen stand by the office for your consideration. June 25th this will be covered in the sermon and service, commemorating the day the Augsburg Confession was made by the reformers. Final discussion will be at the July Voter’s Meeting, date not yet set. As always, we can get together and discuss individually if you desire.

Music Ministry

Welcome to Summer 2017!

If you are a fan of summer because it’s a time of relaxation, great! If you are a fan of summer because there is so much to do, great! If you are a fan of summer because it’s so warm and humid and the wildlife is out in full force, and creation is teeming with activity, great!

If you are a fan of summer because the mosquitos, ticks, gnats, and other pests find you edible, then maybe you get just a small glimpse of the attacks that occur to Christians in our hymn this month, Lord of Our Life, LSB 659. This hymn will reassure your faith June 22/25 this year.

“Peace, peace’, they say, when there is no peace!” [Jeremiah 6:14] So the prophet cried during the destruction of Jerusalem (586 B.C.), as local leaders pretended things were fine. (“They dress the wound of my people as though it were not serious.”)

Over 2000 years later a German layman and church music director named Matthäus Apelles von Löwenstern, personally enduring the ravages of the Thirty Years’ War, pens the words of this remarkable hymn of trust and faith. Like Jeremiah he sees his neighbors, broken emotionally and financially in the midst of a horrific, ongoing conflict with no end in sight.

1. Lord of our life and God of our salvation,/ Star of our night and hope of every nation:/ Hear and receive your Church’s supplication,/ Lord God Almighty.

2. See round Your ark the hungry billows curling;/ See how your foes their banners are unfurling/ And with great spite their fiery darts are hurling,/ O Lord, preserve us.

3. Lord, be our light when worldly darkness veils us;/ Lord, be our shield when earthly armor fails us!/ And in the day when hell itself assails us,/ Grant us your peace, Lord:

4. Peace in our hearts, where sinful thoughts are raging,/ Peace in your Church, our troubled souls assuaging,/ Peace when the world its endless war is waging,/ Peace in your heaven.

Two hundred years later, Philip Pusey, embroiled in a great conflict where the Church of England is “assailed from without, enfeebled and distracted within”, finds strength in Löwenstern’s text and translates it into English.

We realize that these words are the fervent prayer of God’s people in all times and in all places. The Church and her people are always enduring nasty attacks from the outside secular world. She also suffers apostasy and weakness from within her own ranks. Christians will always feel embattled and even disfranchised, as if they “are singing the Lord’s song in a foreign land.” [Psalm 137: 4]

The central image in this hymn is that of the Church as an ark—a large ship, serving as a strong shield and a solid defensive wall as the strong waves of the world’s hateful, powerful darkness surge relentlessly against it. The ark is a place of refuge and hope. It is not an offensive vessel; it does not seek to return evil for evil even in the face of terrible attacks. Indeed, in a stanza missing from most hymnals, the Church’s prayer is that its foes be pushed back and yet forgiven. Through a dove—the Holy Spirit—the Church offers the world an olive branch of peace, true peace which comes only through faith in Christ Jesus, a peace which the world cannot give.

The final stanza of the hymn unwraps this prayer for peace. It’s a plea first and foremost for spiritual peace, a peace in our own hearts, where our own fallen human nature causes us to “struggle against sin in every form.” [Romans 7:23] That’s the ultimate and common source of all the conflict in the world. So we pray for peace in the Church itself, where, though given to us as a place for solace and strengthening, so often dissension creates “troubled souls” and doubt. Then we pray for temporal peace, peace in this world, a place of unending mistrust, hatred, and malice. The final sigh of this prayer is one of quiet confidence and hope—peace in heaven. We know that the day is coming when the ark will reach that other shore, and a greater light, where “that multitude which no one can number” will rejoice with us, those “whose hope was in the Word made flesh, and with whom, in this Lord Jesus, we forevermore are one.”

May you return often to the ark of the church here in Arlington and have your faith strengthened every week. The assaults of the world will not go away. But Jesus and his peace will also never go away!

Amen, Lord Jesus. Come soon and grant us that peace!

In His service,
Cantor Jeremy Zieroth

COUNCIL MEETING NOTES – MAY 9, 2017

The May 9, 2017, meeting of the St. Peter's Lutheran Church Council was called to order at 6:31 p.m. by President William Steffenhagen.

Members present: Pastor Amen, Thomas Crum, Greg Frank, Cameron Gramse, Beth Hutchinson, Robert Kronberg, Phillip Kruger, Steven Paskey, Vint Quamme, Dan Schmidt, William Steffenhagen, Lynnette Taylor, Jeremy Zieroth

Members excused: Linda Fait, Bill Hageman Lisa Hagenow, Dale Johnson, Charlotte Reddeman, Jenni See.

Members absent: Renee Bindl, Mike Manke, and Bill Manthey

Opening Devotion, by Pastor Amen: Pastor read part of Jonah 1 and explained what Jonah was thinking as he paid the fare and got on the boat even though it wasn't what God had told him to do.

Goes to show us that things are not going to go as we plan but we shouldn't run away from it because God has a plan.

Agenda: The agenda was presented. Tom Crum asked that a change be made to the Usher committee to add Cam Gramse. Also to change the Altar Guild liason to Greg Frank. A motion was made by Cam Gramse to approve the agenda as amended. This was seconded by Tom Crum. Motion carried.

Secretary's Report as presented: The Secretary's minutes were read. There were a few spacing issues but no corrections of material. A motion was made by Tom Crum and seconded by Greg Frank to accept the Secretary's report. Motion carried.

Financial Secretary's Report as presented: The Financial Secretary's written report was reviewed. The total contributions for General Fund for April is $15,809.50 and for Special Purpose Fund is $5,571.49. Total offerings for the month of April was $24,642.49. A motion was made by Greg Frank and seconded by Vint Quamme to accept the report. Motion carried.

Treasurer's Report as presented: The written report was reviewed. The amount currently available after payment of April expenses is $14,930.04. Upcoming expenses were noted. Easter advertising expenses were presented and will total $210 thanks to a donation that helped to cover the flyer that advertised the Easter Egg Hunt and also included the Easter services. A reminder that the negative balance in Special Purpose for the office equipment is one that is being paid back to us by the normal expenses of the copier lease however this means that we are not paying any one else interest on leasing the machine and we will continue to pay into this account even after the balance has been covered so that when it is time for a new machine (6-7 years from now) we can buy it outright without paying interest then either. A motion was made by Bob Kronberg and seconded by Dan Schmidt to accept the Treasurer's report. Motion carried.

Board of Elder's Report, by Thomas Crum: Many thank yous to everyone for their help. The ushers are still looking for some volunteers and they will work to include the three new confirmands. Altar Guild will be meeting to discuss a chairman. With the Voters approval, the changes to the endowment fund allocations have been sent in and will be put in place. Two applications for the scholarship were received from Elizabeth Reddeman and Emily Taylor. They will receive recognition both at the 8:00 am service on May 21st and at the Poynette High awards night on May 24th. The Christian Women's Council's plant and bake sale will be the weekend of May 18-20. Jeremy gave the Cantor's report. Thanks to all the musicians who participated in the Easter services. Final choir performance for this year was this past Sunday and the last bells practice will be Wed, May 10th with their last performance on May 14th. Jeremy is getting the summer schedule settled. A motion was made by Steve Paskey and seconded by Phil Kruger to accept the report. Motion carried.

Board of Trustee's Report, by Steven Paskey: Strander Roofing has been here and resealed the shingles. We are waiting for an estimate from them on the cost of replacing the entire roof so that we can start to plan. Stoltenburg Painting has been contacted to come in and repair the plaster in the narthex that has been damaged by these recent leaks. A motion was made by Cam Gramse and seconded by Greg Frank to accept the report. Motion carried.

Board of Christian Education Report: The Child Care Center's enrollment continues to be steady with a couple of new enrollments for the fall already in the books. On May 5 from 5:00-9:00 p.m. another "Date Night" fundraiser was held. Approximately 25-30 kids were in attendance and only three of the families were families that already come to St. Peter's. These "date nights" are very simple for the teachers to do and they are turning into good public relations as well as a recruitment tool for the Child Care Center. The Preschool will have the same teacher next year that we currently have and she seems to be working very well with our Center. Sunday School children in all grades will sing on May 21, the last day of Sunday School for this year. They will then have games in the park. Midweek classes are done for the year and they confirmed six individuals. The youth group has six members who will be attending the Higher Things conference in Billings, MT this summer. Thank you to the Endowment Committee for approving $1000 to go toward the travel for them to get out there. Bible classes are ongoing. A motion was made by Vint Quamme and seconded by Dan Schmidt to accept the Board of Christian Education report. Motion carried.

Pastor's Report, by Pastor Amen: Meet Kyle and Brittini Brown our 2017-18 Vicar and Deaconess Intern. They will be arriving here in Arlington on the first Friday in August. Installation is being planned for Sunday August 6th. Playground options were reviewed and the details are coming together as the committee meets with Lee Recreation from Cambridge. At this point timing for the project is centering around July 2017 with thoughts that once it is started should be finished within one week. There is the possibility that members will be able to help lower labor costs once the equipment arrives with helping to remove plastic from the new pieces before they are constructed into the structure.

Membership changes: None

Old Business: None

New Business: None

A motion was made at 7:21 p.m. by Bob Kronberg to adjourn the meeting. This was seconded by Vint Quamme and the motion carried. The meeting ended with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted by Lynnette Taylor, Acting Secretary.
