LAW & GOSPEL SERIES... What does St. Paul mean when he writes about "rightly handling the word of truth?" Issues, Etc., a radio talk show and podcast produced by Lutheran Public Radio in Collinsville, IL, has an in-depth series with Pr. Will Weedon based on "The Proper Distinction Between Law & Gospel" by C.F.W. Walther. You can listen to the entire series at your convenience at issuesetc.org/lawandgospel.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT SERVICE TIMES: Pastor, Vicar, and the Elders would like to hear from you concerning Advent and Lent service times. Do you like the present schedule (Advent at 5:30 PM, Lent at 6:00 PM, Holy Week at 6:30 PM) or would you prefer a standard starting time for all Wednesday night services (6:00 PM, 6:30 PM, earlier, or later)? Please talk to Pastor, Vicar, or your elder and let them know your opinion.

SEMINARY FUND. Did you know that St. Peter's congregation has two members who are attending Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne, IN? Chase Greenhagen is in his vicarage year at Faith Lutheran in Green Bay and Michael Hendrickson is in his second year of studies. You can support them not only with prayer, but also with financial aid. Place your gift (made out to St. Peter's) in your offering envelope, write "Seminary Fund" on the envelope, and then designate if you'd like your financial support to go to Michael Hendrickson or Chase Greenhagen. If you would like to help both men, then write only "Seminary Fund" on the envelope and the amount will be split between them.

CHURCH MUSIC Consider using your gifts and abilities to enhance our worship services with additional music. If you play any instrument please speak with Cantor Geremy Zieroth for how it may be used in our services. Rehearsal for bells and vocal choirs are Wednesday evenings. All musical abilities and levels welcome.

Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity

A large funeral procession carrying the only son of a widow is confronted by another large procession, Jesus and His followers. Death and Life meet face to face at the gate of the city. Filled with compassion, Jesus comes into direct contact with our mortality in order to overcome it. He touches the coffin and speaks His creative words of life, "Young man, I say to you, arise." Jesus does what is neither expected nor requested. For through Christ, God the Father "is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think". Jesus bore our death in His body that we may share in His resurrection. Even as Elijah stretched himself out three times over the Zarephath woman's son, God stretched Himself out over us in the threefold application of His name in the baptismal water, breathing new and everlasting life into us. "To Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever."

(As a prayer of preparation use one of today's hymns or the prayers inside the front cover of the hymnal.)

WELCOME GUESTS The Lord's Supper is joyfully received here today. At the altar, our Lord Jesus Christ delivers His True Body and Blood into our mouths. His gift of Body and Blood, given in, with, and under the bread and wine, bestows tremendous benefits. His Body and Blood forgives our sins, strengthens our faith, binds us to the Lord, and unites us with each other. In this is life and salvation. All members of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod have publicly confessed this sacred gift and its blessings, and so are encouraged to commune. Other guests wishing to join our confession and receive this Holy Sacrament are asked to meet with Pastor Juhl in the weeks before communing for the first time. Those coming to the altar for a blessing rather than the Holy Supper are asked to cross their arms over their chest. When you have examined yourself according to Christ's bidding (1 Corinthians 11:28), come to His Supper rejoicing, just as Jesus asks, knowing that our Lord meets you at His altar with joy.
