Ninth Sunday after Trinity

“The master commended the unjust steward because he had dealt shrewdly”. The steward’s shrewdness is praiseworthy for two reasons. First, he knew the master would be merciful. He trusted that the master would honor the debts he forgave in the master’s name. In the same way, though we have squandered our heavenly Father’s possessions in selfishness and sin, Jesus is the Steward who has canceled our debt, knowing that His forgiveness will be honored by the Father because of the holy cross. Secondly, the steward was shrewd in using oil and wheat to provide for his earthly welfare. So also do these earthly elements aid us when pressed into heavenly use in the anointing of baptism and the wheat of the Lord’s Supper. Those who have the Sacraments will have an eternal home when the earthly fails. These are our escape in temptation. For the Lord is our strength and a shield to all who trust in Him.

(As a prayer of preparation use one of today’s hymns or the prayers inside the front cover of the hymnal.)

WELCOME GUESTS The Lord’s Supper is joyfully received here today. At the altar, our Lord Jesus Christ delivers His True Body and Blood into our mouths. His gift of Body and Blood, given in, with, and under the bread and wine, bestows tremendous benefits. His Body and Blood forgives our sins, strengthens our faith, binds us to the Lord, and unites us with each other. In this is life and salvation. All members of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod have publicly confessed this sacred gift and its blessings, and so are encouraged to commune. Other guests wishing to join our confession and receive this Holy Sacrament are asked to meet with Pastor Juhl in the weeks before communing for the first time. Those coming to the altar for a blessing rather than the Holy Supper are asked to cross their arms over their chest. When you have examined yourself according to Christ’s bidding (1 Corinthians 11:28), come to His Supper rejoicing, just as Jesus asks, knowing that our Lord meets you at His altar with joy.

FLOWERS ON THE ALTAR are placed by Dave & Shawntel Sandstrom in celebration of Jenna’s 27th birthday. Happy Birthday, Jenna!

QUARTERLY VOTERS’ MEETING is today, July 28, 2024 between services.

GREETING CARDS. The table in the north entrance of the narthex has a good selection of cards available. Get your graduation, birthday, and anniversary celebration cards while supporting Christian Women’s Council and their good work. You may leave your cash or check in the basket on the table.

30 YEAR REUNION A celebration of three decades providing care for our community’s children will take place this afternoon, July 28th, 2:00-4:00 p.m. at St. Peter’s Church. Past, present, and future attendees as well as our congregation members are encouraged to attend. There will be refreshments and games for all!

CHURCH MUSIC Consider using your gifts and abilities to enhance our worship services with additional music. If you play any instrument please speak with Cantor Jeremy Zieroth for how it may be used in our services. Rehearsal for bells and vocal choirs will begin September 4th. All musical abilities and levels welcome.

NURSERY/CHAPEL (unattended): Here at St. Peter’s we believe it is important for all to be present to hear God’s Word, but that at times there is a need to step out. There is a small chapel room to the front left (lectern side) that allows the look and feel of church.

SUMMERTIME. With summer approaching its end, bringing with it the season of weekend travels, remember that we have a weekly service on Monday evenings at 6:30 when you cannot attend on Sunday.
