The Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity

The Law cannot help us or give us life. Rather, it confines everyone under sin as wounded and naked before God (Gal. 3:15–22). So it is that two figures of the Law, the priest and the Levite, passed by the injured man on the side of the road (Luke 10:23–37). Only the promised Seed of Abraham can rescue us and make us righteous before God. Only the Samaritan, our Lord Jesus, had compassion, as did the Samaritans of old (2 Chronicles 28:8–15). He came down to us in our lost and dying condition, pouring on the oil and wine of the Sacraments. He placed us on His own animal, bearing our sin and brokenness in His body on the cross to restore us. Jesus brought us to the inn, that is, the Church, and gave the innkeeper two denarii, that His double forgiveness might continue to be ministered to us. In this way the Lord, by whose Law we are torn and stricken, heals us and revives us by His Gospel and raises us up with Himself.

(As a prayer of preparation use one of today’s hymns or the prayers inside the front cover of the hymnal.)

WELCOME GUESTS Luther found his deepest treasure in the forgiveness of sins in the Lord’s Supper and called it “the sun around which all other doctrines revolve like planets.” Jesus promised and gives forgiveness and gives life and salvation. Deeply thankful for His gift here, we also desire to receive it together in unity according to His will. As this includes doctrinal oneness, we ask guests desiring to commune to please speak with pastor before the service. Gluten free Communion wafers are available. If you desire to receive Communion with a gluten free Communion wafer, please speak to Pastor before taking Communion.
