The Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity

The ten lepers cried out from a distance, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!”. Their condition cut them off from God and others. So also do the works of the flesh cut us off from God and others. “Those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God”. Thus we cry out with the lepers, “Lord, have mercy; Christ, have mercy; Lord, have mercy,” eagerly seeking His good gifts. Jesus said to the lepers, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were cleansed. So too, we walk by faith and not by sight, being confident of Jesus’ help before we see any evidence of it, trusting that Jesus’ cleansing words of forgiveness will restore us to wholeness in the resurrection. Let us be as the one leper who returned to the true High Priest to give Him thanks and glory. For Jesus bore our infirmities in His sacrifice at Calvary. His words are life to those who find them, and health to all their flesh.

(As a prayer of preparation use one of today’s hymns or the prayers inside the front cover of the hymnal.)

WELCOME GUESTS Luther found his deepest treasure in the forgiveness of sins in the Lord’s Supper and called it “the sun around which all other doctrines revolve like planets.” Jesus promised and gives forgiveness and gives life and salvation. Deeply thankful for His gift here, we also desire to receive it together in unity according to His will. As this includes doctrinal oneness, we ask guests desiring to commune to please speak with pastor before the service. Gluten free Communion wafers are available. If you desire to receive Communion with a gluten free Communion wafer, please speak to Pastor before taking Communion.
