The Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity

“Do not put yourself forward in the king’s presence”. Rather, take the lowest position at the table. Humble yourself before Him. For your place is not for you to take but for Him to give. Conduct yourself with all lowliness and gentleness, bearing with one another in love, that the King may give you glory in the presence of those at the table with you. “For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted”. Is this not the way of Christ? He is the one who took the lowest place, who humbled Himself even to the point of death for us. He is now exalted to the highest place at the right hand of the Father that penitent believers may be exalted together with Him in the resurrection. To the humble at His Supper He says, “Friend, move up higher,” giving you His very body and blood for your forgiveness that you may ascend to take part in the great wedding feast which has no end.

(As a prayer of preparation use one of today’s hymns or the prayers inside the front cover of the hymnal.)

WELCOME GUESTS Luther found his deepest treasure in the forgiveness of sins in the Lord’s Supper and called it “the sun around which all other doctrines revolve like planets.” Jesus promised and gives forgiveness and gives life and salvation. Deeply thankful for His gift here, we also desire to receive it together in unity according to His will. As this includes doctrinal oneness, we ask guests desiring to commune to please speak with pastor before the service. Gluten free Communion wafers are available. If you desire to receive Communion with a gluten free Communion wafer, please speak to Pastor before taking Communion.
