NURSERY/CHAPEL (unattended): Here at St. Peter's we believe it is important for all to be present to hear God's Word, but that at times there is a need to step out. There is a small chapel room to the front left (lectern side) that allows the look and feel of church.

Last Sunday of the Church Year

"The day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night". The arrival of the bridegroom will be sudden and unexpected. Therefore you are to be watchful and ready like the five wise virgins. "For you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming". The lamps are the Word of Christ. The oil in the lamps is the Holy Spirit, who works through the Word to create and sustain the flame of faith in Christ. The foolish are those who do not give proper attention to the working of the Holy Spirit in baptism, preaching, and the supper, and so their faith does not endure. The wise, however, are those who diligently attend to these gifts of the Spirit, and who therefore have an abundance of oil. The flame of faith endures to the end. By God's grace they are received into the eternal wedding feast of the Lamb in His kingdom, the new heavens and the new earth created by the Lord for the joy of His people.

(As a prayer of preparation use one of today's hymns or the prayers inside the front cover of the hymnal.)

WELCOME GUESTS The Lord's Supper is joyfully received here today. All members of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod have publicly confessed this sacred gift and its blessings, and so are encouraged to commune. Other guests wishing to join our confession and receive this Holy Sacrament are asked to meet with Pastor Juhl in the weeks before communing for the first time. Those coming to the altar for a blessing rather than the Holy Supper are asked to cross their arms over their chest. When you have examined yourself according to Christ's bidding (1 Corinthians 11:28), come to His Supper rejoicing, just as Jesus asks, knowing that our Lord meets you at His altar with joy. Gluten-free Communion wafers are available. If you desire to receive Communion with gluten free Communion wafer, please speak to Pastor before taking Communion.
